Disabled Veterans Pass Through Redifc

Geo. Hinks and Marshall MacDougall, two of the crippled soldiers who are making their way through the country, were in Redifc last Saturday morning. They were passing through the town on their way to the Amuse-U Theatre where they appeared before the audience. Mr. Hinks is a former member of the Redifc branch of the Canadian Legion, which he stated that the object of the trip was to see the country and the authorities at Ottawa some of the grievances of the Amputation Association.

The two boys are accompanied by Tom Bennett, who is himself a noted singer, and is looking after the boys on their trip. They are well known in the town and are passing through the town on their way to the Amuse-U Theatre where they appeared before the audience.

The Redifc senior football team opened their league series campaign with a visit to the Calles on Friday night last, and incidentally surprised a good crowd of supporters by securing a victory by two goals to nothing.

Redifc started with the disadvantage of having to face the Calles, but started off with a strong start, which soon put them in the lead. The Calles, however, before the Redifc could get into the game, and after a close fight, the Calles were able to score a goal in the first half. ## GREATLY APPRECIATED.

Redcliff football players and their supporters are loud in their praise of the signs of good fellowship, good feeling and good sportsmanship already displayed on all sides among the several teams in the league. Especial mention is made of the generosity of the Medicine Hat Veterans, whose executive has placed at the disposal of the Redcliff senior and junior teams the Association's comfortable club rooms, shower baths and dressing room. This concession on the part of the Medicine Hat Veterans is appreciated by the boys more than words can convey, as it adds much to their comfort and convenience before and after the games.

Another good precedent has already been established this season. After the games played so far this season the players of both contesting teams have gathered together for a little hling song and have spent a most enjoyable hour. This is a splendid idea and should go a long way towards stimulating the best of feelings between both the players and their supporters.

From present indications Medicine Hat and Redcliff football fans are on the eve of one of the most successful football seasons we have ever had.

BLAME IT ON IDLENESS.

Leaders of thought among many different lines appear to have come to the unanimous conclusion that idleness is the cause of much, if not all, the trouble in the world today. These leaders have been doing some investigating in national, international, governmental, municipal, community and labor affairs, and have come to the conclusion that idle men, who are sometimes paid by organizations or individuals, and are depending on the amount of trouble they can make for a living, are the main cause of much of the dissatisfaction and turmoil of the present day.

There is no doubt that there is some truth in this conclusion. The man who is engaged in any line of business has both his mind and his time taken up in an endeavor to conduct that business successfully, satisfactorily and profitably, while those who have no regular occupation to engage their time and attention must have some way to relieve what little energy they may have. Naturally the latter class follows along the line of least resistance and goes about day after day sowing the seeds of discontent, malice, spite and jealousy, thus turning man against man and class against class.

The reason given for the apparent momentary success of this class of trouble-makers, is that the busy men, who, because they are busy, are better posted in actual conditions, have not the time nor the inclination to get out and counteract the work being done by the strife spreaders.

However, there is something consoling and encouraging in the final summing up of these investigations. In their opinion, the public is about fed up on this condition of affairs and will soon demand deeds and actions instead of hollow sounding phrases, petty fault finding and unfulfilled promises.

Since idleness is said to be the cause of so much trouble, why not some concerted action to get every one a job of some kind, and thus keep them out of mischief.

RELATED INFORMATION.

According to evidence taken before a committee of the federal house there has been a considerable increase in the price of everything the farmer has to buy and little or no increase in the things the farmer has to sell. This is no news nor was it necessary to hold any investigation to find this out. Everybody has known for some time that this was the case. What's the use of rubbing it in by holding investigations to prove to us what we already know? What is needed is a remedy for existing conditions. If the time taken up in this investigation were used for planning new systems and righting existing wrongs, some headway might be made and conditions improved.

The government has known for some time that a farmer has had to sell his wool off fifty sheep to get enough money to buy a decent suit of clothes; that while the farmer could not find a market of any kind for hides, boots, harness and other leather goods were selling at top notch prices; that hardware, farm implements, clothing, lumber and miscellaneous articles have kept up from 64 to 86 per cent, while everything the farmer has to sell dropped outright to almost pre-war prices. Yet the government would like to make it appear as though they were still finding these things out now, as a result of the present investigation.

It is because of the existence of these conditions for several years past that business generally has been so slow in getting back to any way near normal. There can be no general or lasting prosperity so long as the principal industry of the country is being handicapped by this extent.

If there is one thing more than another that should awaken the people of this province to a sense of their responsibility in connection with the bootlegging business, it is the fact that the traffic has already sent two people to the gallows for murdering an officer, and that during the past week another policeman has been killed in the discharge of his duties, and another Alberta citizen is called upon to face the charge of murder.

During the past few years Alberta's hopes and expectations have had more ups and downs than an elevator boy in a busy department store. A few years ago we were told it was only going to be a matter of months till our natural resources would be handed over to us, but we haven't there yet. Later we were to have a wheat board for the asking and it is not yet in sight. Between these two important matters were scores of other suggestions which were to be worked out to the advantage of Alberta and its people. A short time ago the President of our National railways went through this country and raised our hopes by telling us that the development of the coal industry of this province was to be made possible by the adoption of reasonable freight rates to the eastern markets. This looked fine for a few minutes, but now the rate has been announced as $9.00 a ton we are told by coal operators that it will not help the situation a little bit, as the necessary retail price on the eastern market will still be too high to successfully compete with American coal. What next?

Not long ago the "Albertan" complained of the length of the last session of the legislature and said it was too long for what was accomplished. In discussing the matter with our local representative, he remarked that if every member of the legislature spoke as long as and as long as did the editor of the "Albertan," the session would be in session yet.

In this world a man must be either an aviator or a hammer.

Wheat Board Would Aid The West Route

With the wheat crop of Alberta and Saskatchewan controlled by a wheat board, the Vancouver route will get very much of export grain prepared to handle this fall. This is the view of Premier Greenfield of Alberta who is in Winnipeg, en route to the west coast to complete final details for the board's operation. Grain exchange and mill men agree with Greenfield's view of the western trend from these two provinces. It is expected that the grain freight rates against B.C. will be cheaper to send wheat originating west of Regina to Vancouver than over the route through Fort William, but the possibilities opened for the new route by the wheat board will be out of all proportion to the volume that would have gone west under the slow process of trying the traffic loose from the route.

Govt Wants Complete Removal of Embargo

The Canadian cattle embargo which was imposed of Europe grain imported (lifted by the importation of animals, passed last year, has been removed in part, according to James Marshall, Canadian commissioner of agriculture. The embargo on cattle from Canada should be lifted under the new trade agreement, in connection with the reopening of the Canadian store cattle market by Dundas. He estimated that the Canadian government would look a complete removal of the embargo.

Last year her imports were $200,000,000, of which Canada sent $1,100,000, and it is now expected that there will be a further increase to between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 this year.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has arranged with a number of American countries for the transportation of farmers and domestics who are willing to come to Canada for employment on Canadian farms. The immigrants will be brought to Canada at the joint expense of their home governments and the railway company.

The first successful rail experiment on a moving long-distance railway train was recently carried out on a Canadian Pacific Railway car from Winnipeg to Vancouver. Mr. Raymond Wolfe installed a receiving table the drawing room, the through sleeping car, and the aerial was installed by the railway electrical department. The results were all that could be desired.

Seeing the train swaying as it passed her while she was picking berries was the reason why Mrs. Fred Adler, of Brandon, Minn., would not take a ride on a train, but after she had returned to Winnipeg from Elmira she told Mr. C. Cowan, a Canadian Pacific agent at the former place, that she thoroughly enjoyed the sensation of traveling for the first time on a train, which did not go fast enough for her.

Highest Peak In Canadian Rockies

Mount Robson National Park holds the tourist and explorer new trails through new wonderful lands in a great unspoiled Alpine kingdom, where nature and beauty vie with each other. It is a country abounding in big things; majestic peaks, deep canyons and waterfalls, fine forests, and a doubtful if anywhere in an equal area are such mountain scenery and wonder features can be found. Camps are located in Mount Robson Park for accommodation of tourists, where saddle horses and pack horses are available. An observation platform has been constructed by the Canadian National Railway, at Mount Robson Station, where all trains stop for a few minutes to afford travelers the opportunity of viewing this vast and amazing territory. Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, is plainly seen from the train. The "Continental Limited," on route to the Pacific Coast traverses this new playground, and for many miles follows the North Thompson and Fraser Rivers, remarkable in beauty and interesting in history. Mountain Observation Cars composed largely of glass are attached to the "Continental Limited." This new innovation on the Mountain Division of Canadian National Railways, allows unobstructed view of the scenery on both sides of the track and affords protection from sun or rain.

INSURE AND BE SURE

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK
That a man will insure his house, his furniture, his stock, his car and even his bull-dog, yet carry no insurance to protect his wife and family?

The fire wagon may never come your way, but the hearse surely will some day.

Consult the undersigned regarding our new Super-select Contracts, where all deposits with the company cease and we pay $100 monthly in the event of a man becoming totally disabled.
